

THE LEGACY CIRCLE

OFFICIAL CONSTITUTION

Motto: "United in Purpose. Built to Last."

Founding Date: 1 September 2026

PREAMBLE

We, the members of The Legacy Circle, united by friendship, trust, common purpose and a commitment to building a meaningful future together, hereby establish this Constitution as the principal governing document of our group.

Recognizing that a strong and successful group requires discipline, honesty, transparency, accountability, responsible leadership, mutual respect and active participation, we commit ourselves to protecting the interests of the group and every member.

We therefore adopt this Constitution to establish clear principles and procedures governing membership, contributions, financial management, leadership, meetings, decision-making, discipline, welfare, activities, accountability and the future development of The Legacy Circle.

We believe that collective discipline can turn small contributions into meaningful opportunities, and that friendship strengthened by responsibility can create something that lasts.

Together we plan.
Together we contribute.
Together we grow.
Together we build a legacy.

FINAL DECLARATION

The Legacy Circle is founded on friendship, trust, discipline, unity and purpose.

We recognize that what we build together can only succeed when every member takes responsibility for protecting it.

Every contribution represents commitment.

Every meeting represents progress.

Every decision represents responsibility.

Every achievement represents our collective effort.

We will protect what we build.

We will hold one another accountable.

We will grow together.

We will build with purpose.

We will preserve our friendship.

And we will build something worth remembering.

"United in Purpose. Built to Last."
